

Our Passion is Building World-Class Leadership Teams

DMC Search

At DMC Search, we firmly believe in the power of expert operational leaders as the foundation for building winning companies. With a focus on people operations, business operations, general counsels, government affairs, and risk and compliance, we specialize in identifying and securing top-tier talent that drives organizational success.

Experience the transformative impact of exceptional operational leadership as we help you build a winning team that propels your company towards unprecedented achievements.

What We're Solving For

DMC Search understands that the executive search is more than filling a role. We set up your candidate and organization for success beyond hiring and in the long-term.

Why? Here's the data: did you know that an executive team will turnover on average four times from their first investment to their IPO? Or that 44% of executives that get hired, leave within the first year of working at a company?

That's why DMC Search offers a full cycle of services: a strategy for placement, onboarding, backfilling, and additional solutions for interim gaps. We place leaders everywhere from 'head of function' to C-Suite opportunities, and help them stay at your company. Specifically, these are the major talent areas where DMC Search places executives:

- Human Resources
- Business Operations
- Government Affairs
- Talent Acquisition
- General Counsels
- Compliance and Risk

Our Value Proposition

At our core, we are dedicated to providing your organization with exceptional value through a range of tailored solutions. What sets us apart from other executive search firms are three key differentiators: our strategic expertise in recruiting, our team of subject-matter experts in various verticals, and our comprehensive platform of professionals and professional services designed to enhance the executive experience.

Our Executive Search team comes from top companies such as Google, Tesla, Earnin, SurveyMonkey, Affirm, Lime and more. They leverage cutting-edge data and experienced experts to craft roles, engage top candidates, build diverse pipelines and access competitive compensation data.

At DMC Search, we offer a unique solution for companies who may not be ready for a full-time executive role due to various circumstances. Our fractional executives step in to bridge the gap, providing immediate support while you prepare for a permanent hire. By leveraging our fractional executives, you gain access to experienced professionals who not only address your immediate needs but also assist in shaping the role for a seamless transition when the time comes for a full-time executive, ensuring a successful onboarding experience.
